

De GAULLE SURRENDERS!

After a lengthy and passionate debate, de Gaulle gives Capt. Dave Pucci "Unconditional Surrender" to the 9th Division's debate team. Capt. Pucci admitted this could not have been achieved without help from PFC Phil 'Slugger' Jodzio", (an American born Polish ex-patriot, posing as an Infantryman of the 60th Regt., posing as a German Soldier). "Slugger lead the lamb to the slaughter at Fort Mifflin, once Slugger haddem', he was mine."

Phil "Slugger" Jodzio (pictured below left) was asked how he lured de Gaulle into debate, he commented "it was easy, I offered him free cheese balls." Jodzio will receive the Iron Snipe Award for his heroic actions and quick thinking.

VET RE-UPS FOR "ONE MORE TOUR OF DUTY!"

After being arrested for trying to make off with some "hot slim Jim's", a 78th Vet takes Commander Gianobile's offer of a commuted sentence in joining up for another tour of Duty with the 9th Division.

Army Air Corp. Pilot Test Flies French Copy of German Fighter Jet

Capt. Dave "pooch" Pucci (pictured left) to receive the Légion d'honneur after the plane he was flying burst into flames after take off. Pucci claims the fire erupted when a Frenchman masquerading as German failed to control the flame on his cheese fondue pot.

Army photographer "Click" Clayton caught the ill fated flight with his camera below.

JOE's Spic & Span

Where the Chefs are tougher than the grub!